

14/7/2020

A. What Did I Learn?

L-4

1. Answer the following questions:

- a) In the first paragraph, the narrator tells you, “night met morning face-to-face and the meeting was not happy.” What does he mean by this phrase? Why was the meeting ‘not happy’?
- b) Why do you think father enjoyed his walk at day break during springtime?
- ~~c) How do you think did the children react to the rabbit on the table?~~
- d) Was mother happy to see the rabbit? Why / Why not?
- e) What bad experience of the past does mother remind the family of?
- f) Why did the rabbit not touch the milk offered by the family on the kitchen table?
- g) In your opinion, did the entire family love animals / pets? Give examples from the story to prove your point.

Class 6th
L-4 Adolf

Answer (Pg. 43)

Ans. a) The phrase meant that night just ended with the beginning of a bright morning and the meeting wasn't happy because he just arrived home tired and weary.

Ans. b) Father enjoyed his walk at day break during springtime because of his long walk through fields. He loved the open morning after a night down the pit. He watched every bird, every stir in the trembling grass, answering the calls of birds.

Ans. d) No, she was not happy as she hated the tragedy of pets dying very soon.

Ans. e) The mother reminded him of other little wild animals he had brought which had balked and refused to live and brought streams of tears and trouble into the house.

Date
Page No.

Ans f) The rabbit did not touch the milk offered by the family on the kitchen table because since everything was new to him he preferred to suck its life away.

Ans g) yes, they did as they had pets in past also, who had died.